

GU/CDOE/2026

Date: 21ST January 2026

Back Paper Examination – Semester I (Jan 2024–25 Batch)

This is to inform all learners of the January 2024–25 batch who were declared Failed or Absent in the Semester I End Term Examination that they are permitted to appear for the Back Paper Examination for the respective course(s).

The Back Paper Examination window will be open as per the details below:

Examination Period:

03 February 2026 to 22 February 2026

Learners are advised to note the following:

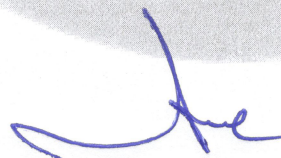

- The back paper attempt is applicable only for the specific course(s) in which the learner has failed or was absent.
- The examination must be attempted within the stipulated timeframe. No extension beyond the above dates will be permitted.
- Further details regarding examination slots, guidelines, and access will be communicated separately through the official channels.

All eligible learners are strongly advised to plan and complete their back paper examination within the prescribed schedule.

For any academic or examination-related queries, learners may contact the concerned academic office through official communication channels.

Examination Cell

Director CIQA

21/01/26
Controller of Examination

Executive Director